For the past two years my husband and I have taken our grandchildren to see the Ice! spectacular How The Grinch Stole Christmas in Nashville, Tennessee. This year the grandkids are so excited to be going to see A Charlie Brown Christmas. I found a link on you tube <http://www.youtube.com/acountrychristmas> which I thought I would share with all of you.

In the clip the late and legendary Charles Schulz is discussed by his wife, Jeannie and son Craig, as they look forward to experiencing ICE! A Charlie Brown Christmas at Gaylord Opryland's A Country Christmas which will be open from November 20, 2009-January 2, 2010. The interview takes place at the Schulz Museum and Research Center as well as Charles Schulz's Ice Rink in Santa Rosa, California.

Bet you all will be as tempted as I was to try the ice slides. LOL The kids think it's hysterical seeing grandma flying down an ice slide and as my grandsons say "screaming like a little girl." The Crabby Old Guy, my sweet husband and I have found this attraction a great way to start the holidays with our family. Enjoy!

Hugs,
The Savvy Old Lady
