

October 8, 2009

Peanuts look-a-like contest coming to Gaylord Opryland

For dogs that look like Snoopy and kids and adults who resemble other characters

By Andy Humbles The Tennessean

A Peanuts Look-A-Like Contest will be held in conjunction with the comic strip's 60th anniversary starting at 10 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 24, at Gaylord Opryland Resort.

Registration starts at 10 a.m. and judging at 11 a.m. There is no cost to enter the look-a-like contest. Charlie Brown and Snoopy characters will be present to host the contest at the resort's ICE! Gaslight Theater across from Opry Mills Mall.

Categories include the Best Snoopy Like-A-Like for dogs only and the Best Peanuts Character Look-A-Like for adults and children.

There is also the Peanuts 60th Anniversary online photo contest at www.peanutsphtocontest.com.

The contest will precede ICE! featuring A Charlie Brown Christmas is a display with multiple rooms of ice sculptures telling the famous story, scheduled to open Nov. 20 at Gaylord Opryland Resort. It will run through Jan. 2.

Winners of the look-a-like contest will receive free tickets to see ICE! and other Peanuts prizes.

Call 1-888-999-OPRY or visit www.wefrozecharliebrow.com for information.

---